

14th November 2017

Dear Parent and Carers,

I am writing to inform you of some change in teaching staff in Matisse class. Unfortunately, Mrs Willcox will be leaving Mount Street Academy with immediate effect due to personal circumstances. We are understandably sad about this but appreciate her reasons and want to take this opportunity to thank her for all the hard work and effort she has given to our school.

In light of this, we have considered very carefully how to replace Mrs Willcox's teaching responsibility to ensure continuity for your children. With immediate effect, until Christmas 2017, Mrs Silson will teach in Matisse on a Thursday and a Friday, covering the days that Mrs Willcox was teaching. Mrs Silson knows the class well, as she works in Kandinsky at the beginning of the week and therefore we have absolute confidence that this will be a smooth transition. Miss Parker will continue to teach on a Monday, Tuesday and a Wednesday.

After Christmas we are delighted to be welcoming Mrs Claire Martin to the team at Mount Street (photograph to the left). Mrs Martin has 15 years teaching experience and will be teaching in Matisse on a Wednesday, Thursday and a Friday, with Miss Parker continuing to teach on a Monday and a Tuesday.

Between now and Christmas, Mrs Martin will be coming into school on several occasions to meet with Miss Parker, get to know the class and ensure a smooth transition takes place in the New Year. Mrs Martin has a child who attends our school in Reception and I'm sure she will bump into you on the school run from time to time.

We apologise for the changes but hope you can see that we have worked hard to ensure the least disruption for the children.

Kind regards,

Mrs Nicoll
